Justice of the Peace.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

I Daniel Green, aged fifty five years, a citizen of the United States, born in Falmouth now Portland in the District of Maine, but now of Waterville in said District, on this second day of April 1818, upon oath testify and declare, that in March or April 1781 I enlisted as private Soldier into the continental Service of the U. States against the common enemy, for the term of three years, into the company commanded by Capt. Benson and Regiment commanded by Col. Joseph Vose of the first regiment Massachusetts line. I served until after the peace, and took my honorable discharge from the army at West point in December 1783, or in January or February 1784. I do not precisely recollect which, but I think in the latter month. My discharge was signed by Col Vose and Adjutant Bowles, but I have lost it; having removed often from place to place, and not conceiving that it was of great importance to preserve it. I was stationed one Summer at Philadelphia, and one Summer and winter at New Windsor, but our headquarters were at West point. I am in indigent ~~circum-~~ ~~stances~~, and in need of the bounty of the Government, And I do hereby relinquish all my claims to any pension heretofore allowed me by the laws of the United States, if any; but I am not to my knowledge bound on any pension list whatever, I request to be put on the pension list for the District of Maine. (Signed)
